

Y9 RE Knowledge Organiser HT1 – Crime, Punishment and Forgiveness and Business Ethics

Keywords

- Repent – to be sorry for your actions.
- Reform – to change for the better.
- Redeem – to improve your position /restore some ones good opinion of you – make amends.
- Irredeemable – beyond saving/help.
- Compensation – to pay an agreed sum of money to someone for an injury done to him or her.
- AIMS OF PUNISHMENT
- Deterrence: To put people off of committing a crime.
- Retribution: To get back at a person for what they have done.
- Reformation: To help a person see how and why they should behave better.
- Protection: To take measures to make society safe from criminals.
- Vindication: The punishment exists to make the law enforceable. It exists because the law does.
- Reparation: To make up for or compensate for a crim

Code the statements into Christian views FOR and AGAINST

The Parable of the Sheep and Goats reminds Christians to help outsiders or those who are struggling because we are all made in the image of God. In this parable Jesus asks us to visit people in prison.	"Be alert. If you see your friend going wrong, correct him. If ... he says, 'I'm sorry, I won't do it again,' forgive him." Jesus talking in Luke's Gospel.
'Thou shalt not kill' The 10 commandments, Exodus (The Old Testament of the Bible)	"If the murder was premeditated, cunningly plotted, then drag the killer away, even if it's from my Altar, to be put to death." The Book of Exodus from the Old Testament
The phrase "Eye for an Eye" comes from the Old Testament and is often quoted by Christians who support the death penalty.	Pope Francis recently said that every use of the Death Penalty was a failure and that there was no humane way to kill another person. He said that no crime is worthy of the death penalty.
Jesus was known for spending time with outcasts and people seen as sinners. He defended a woman convicted of adultery.	Whoever sheds human blood, by humans let his blood be shed, because God made humans in his image reflecting God's very nature. The Book of Genesis from the Old Testament
"To be a Christian means to forgive the inexcusable because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you." C S Lewis Christian Author	'Eye for eye, tooth for tooth.' A saying from the Old Testament.

LO: Be able to explain different moral issues affecting organisations.

Ethical Issues Effecting Businesses

What might each photo represent about ethics?

Which stakeholders might be interested by each photo?

What other examples of ethical issues can you think of?

Keywords

- GLOBALISATION – The way companies, ideas and lifestyles are spreading more and more around the world.
- TNC – Transnational Corporation, a company with many branches throughout the world.
- LEDC – Less Economically Developed Country.
- MEDC – More Economically Developed Country.
- Catholic Teachings concerning Business
- Catholic social teaching focused on the common good and often championed worker's rights. It has often criticised the pursuit of wealth for selfish means.
- Christians have often played the role of 'ethical investor', actively pursuing change from within a company. One example is Quaker companies that refused to invest in companies that supported the slave trade.

Pressure groups

- Many businesses have pressure groups who protest against their business. This may be because they use suppliers who do not treat staff well, because they test on animals, because they harm the environment. Examples of pressure groups are Oxfam and Greenpeace.

Y9 RE Knowledge Organiser HT1 - Crime, Punishment and Forgiveness and Business Ethics

--	--	--