The Qur'an Revelation & Muhammad's importance to Muslim belief

Muslims believe that the Qur'an was revealed from God to Muhammad through the angel Jibril (Gabriel) from 610 to 632 CE, the year of his death. Muhammad recited the Qur'an to his followers, numbering tens of thousands, who recited after him, until they had memorized it. He also dictated it to his scribes (Remember Muhammad was illiterate) who wrote down its verses during his life. Shortly after Muhammad's death the Qur'an was established as a single book.

Muhammad is important to Muslims because he sets the example of how to live a Muslim life, how to be a faithful servant of Allah, how to keep on the straight path of Islam. This is important to Muslims because he completed the message of Allah, he is the last Prophet of Allah (After Adam, Abraham, Moses & Jesus), and he brought the message of Allah to ALL people for their salvation, PBUH (Peace Be Upon Him).

Mother Teresa

She was not rich or glamorous, yet royalty and world leaders enjoyed visiting her and were proud to receive visits from her. Some people believed she 'became the most powerful woman in the world.'

This was because when she asked to see or speak to presidents or prime ministers around the world, she was often put straight through. They listened to what she had to say and had great respect for her work among the poor.
