

KEY SKILLS IN PERFORMANCE QUIZ

- 1) What skill is being described? To portray anger: The actor shouts loudly.
 - Facial expression
 - Body language
 - Pause
 - Gesture
 - Volume

- 2) What skill is being described? To portray anger: tense shoulders, a swift and purposeful walk almost like a march.
 - Facial expression
 - Body language
 - Pause
 - Gesture
 - Volume

- 3) What skill is being described? To portray excitement: strong and forceful gestures; possibly very quick and unexpected.
 - Facial expression
 - Body language
 - Pause
 - Gesture
 - Volume

- 4) What skill is being described? To portray anxiety: The actor frowns, holds his mouth closed tightly, his eyes narrow.
 - Facial expression
 - Body language
 - Pause
 - Gesture
 - Volume

- 5) What skill is being described? To portray upset: The actor speaks; stops mid sentence; seems unable to speak; stutters over words; the actor tries to speak again.
 - Facial expression
 - Body language
 - Pause
 - Gesture
 - Volume

6) In drama, when we perform and use our bodies but DON'T speak it's called:

- Mime
- Physical theatre
- Body language
- Silent acting

7) What do actors sometimes put on their shoes to stop them being slippy on stage?

- Deodorant
- Blue Tac
- Hairspray
- Pritt Stick

8) Choose the correct definition for the following term – Setting:

- The characters of the tale
- The language of the tale
- The painted scenery used on stage
- Where the tale takes place